

Curriculum Vitae

MICHAEL GUTHRIE, M.D.

PERSONAL DATA

Address 2300 Naudain Street, Apt. A
Philadelphia, PA 19146
Telephone Number (215) 735-4036

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Private Practice

Philadelphia, PA

Physiatry practice with strong focus on Neurodiagnostic studies (EMGs), musculo-skeletal problems, cervical and lumbar pain management consultations, and interventional pain management.
2/02-present

The Spine Center

Philadelphia, PA

Duties: Chief Physician for non-surgical Rheumatological and orthopedic patient care as well as supervision of the physical therapy department. Perform fluoroscopy guided interventional pain management procedures. Procedures include selective cervical and lumbar facet joint blocks, cervical and lumbar epidural blocks, discograms, intradiscal cortisone injections, and rhizotomy.
7/99 – 12/01

Schwing Rehabilitation Associates, P.A.

Linwood, NJ

Duties: Consulting Physiatrist on staff at two sub-acute nursing facilities. Responsibilities included evaluation of all admissions for appropriateness for physical rehabilitation program, structuring and supervision of rehabilitation program, and medical supervision of the rehabilitation staff.
10/98 – 799

EDUCATION AND TRAINING

RESIDENCY: Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation
Allegheny University Hospital-Graduate
Philadelphia, PA
7/95 – 6/98

Chief Resident 12/96 – 12/97

INTERNSHIP: Transitional/Surgery year
Hospitals of The University of Pennsylvania
Presbyterian Medical Center of Philadelphia
Philadelphia, PA
6/94 – 6/95

EXTERNSHIP: Internal Medicine/Gastroenterology
Temple University Hospital
Philadelphia, PA
10/93 – 12/93

MEDICAL SCHOOL: Saint George's University School of Medicine
Saint George's, Grenada, West Indies
Doctor of Medicine Degree
8/88 – 6/93

PRE-MEDICAL EDUCATION: Saint Joseph's University
Philadelphia, PA
Bachelor of Science Degree (Biology)
8/83 – 5/88

LICENSURE:

ECFMG Certificate: #0-448-269-1
Pennsylvania License: #MD-066100-L
New Jersey License: #MA-68210
Board Eligible for Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation

CONTINUING EDUCATION:

Technique for Percutaneous Electro thermal Treatment of Disc:
Sponsored by the department of Neurology,
UMDNJ – New Jersey Medical School, December 4, 1999

Electrodiagnosis and Clinical Neurophysiology:
Sponsored by the department of Neurology and Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation,
Jefferson Medical College, March 5 – 8, 1997

Post-Graduate Neuranatomic Basis of Neurological Symptoms and Diagnosis:
Lectures and corresponding anatomy dissections by Carson Schneck, M.D.,
Temple University School of Medicine, September 1996 – January 1997

Annual Prosthetics Course:
Sponsored by the Department of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation,
The Hospital of the University of Pennsylvania, April 11-12, 1996 and April 13-17, 1997

RESEARCH/PUBLICATIONS AND CONFERENCE PRESENTATIONS:

A Case Study of Arnold-Chiari Type 1 Malformation in an Adult Presenting initially with Respiratory Failure – Clinical case study presented at the annual meeting of the Pennsylvania Academy of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation, April 26, 1997

Zegel HG, Guthrie MA, et al. Colorflow Duplex Imaging of the Groin after Vascular Catheterization. Video Journal of Colorflow Imaging; Vol. 4, No. 3; pp. 50-56; April 1994

Guthrie MA. Dissection of the hand emphasizing the anatomy of the Musculi Lumbricales and interossei, and their functional inter-relationship with each other. Saint George's University School of Medicine's Permanent Collection of Teaching Anatomy specimens. Saint George's University School of Medicine, Department of Anatomy: January 1990 – May 1990. Advisor – Dr. R. L. Jordan, Ph.D.

COMMITTEES:

Allegheny University Hospital – Graduate Committee for the Internal Review of Residency Program: Responsibilities include reviewing the essentials for conducting the Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation residency program and interviewing faculty and residents; October 1997 – July 1998

SOCIETIES:

American Academy of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation (AAPM&R)
American Medical Association (AMA)

PERSONAL INTEREST:

Scuba Diving, Tennis, Jazz, Classical Music and Art History

REFERENCES:

Furnished upon request.